GREENING THE ARTS

The paper used in this brochure is certified by SmartWood, a program of the Rainforest Alliance, to Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) standards. This ensures that the papers contain fibers from well-managed and responsibly harvested forests that adhere to strict environmental and socio-economic standards.

Summertime is high season for limin', and Krannert Center is one of the best places around to grab quality limin' time—that joyful lingering with friends and colleagues in true Caribbean style—all summer long. Our Thursday after-work Uncorked events at Stage 5 have become popular gathering moments, especially when there's live music. Intermezzo offers delicious organic coffees, refreshing juices, and absurdly tempting sweet treats (as well as healthy breakfast, lunch, and dinner choices, of course!). There are always fun and surprising objects waiting to be discovered at The Promenade. And summer parking is a breeze.

If you're in the mood for some BIG limin', don't miss the fabulous OUTSIDE at the Research Park events. Grab some friends and lawn chairs for wonderful music, food, and easy fun under the summer setting sun.

There's always something new going on at and around Krannert Center, so be sure to check our web site frequently for the latest happenings—and LIME ON!

All good things,

MIKE ROSS | DIRECTOR

At these outdoor concerts, green is the theme: green grass, green practices, and more green in your pocket. For the fourth summer, Krannert Center partners with Fox/Atkins Development LLC and the UI Research Park to present these free events that celebrate green spaces and green thinking in our community. For news on the artists who will be performing on the series this year, visit KrannertCenter.com.

TRAFFIC JAM: THE NO SECRET BAND

It's no secret that this trio has been performing around town since the 1980s. Back then the group was known for killer covers of current hits by The Eagles, Steely Dan, Jimmy Buffett, and Journey. Flash-forward 30 years to the Lobby for a show of tunes now called "classic rock" that will take you right back.

// CHAMPAIGN-URBANA DESIGN ORG (CUDO)

First devised by a pair of architects in Tokyo, PechaKucha Nights have become international phenomena that use a simple concept to create big community exchanges. Presenters have 20 images and 20 seconds per image to share their ideas, works, and passions for a total of 6 minutes and 40 seconds flat. Topics and perspectives vary widely, but the high energy and diverse creativity have undeniable appeal to all. Now Krannert Center joins the masterminds of the Champaign-Urbana Design Org to present this specially priced (free!), innovative show-and-tell event in our perfectly summery Amphitheatre.

2010-11 KRANNERT CENTER SEASON

The finishing touches are almost complete on another season of inspiring performances. Dee Dee Bridgewater, Itzhak Perlman, Diavolo, Chucho Valdés, the Bayanihan Philippine National Dance Company, Drumline LIVE, the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Suzanne Vega, the Trisha Brown Dance Company, and a host of exciting young stars and masterful artists will join our community in 2010-11. Tickets go on sale July 10 at 10am. Visit KrannertCenter.com for updates!

Without our amazing group of donors—individual, corporate, and foundation—Krannert Center's Marquee series would be so much less.

Less impact. Less joy. Less inspiration.

So what's with the 54? That's the percentage of the season's direct costs* that are covered by donations. Can you imagine a season without this support?

Thank a donor today.
